Ready to tune into the Symphony of Stories?

Where will the story take you?

Stories and music can take us on incredible journeys! Your students will explore bustling farms alive with animal sounds, plunge beneath shimmering ocean waves, and discover beautiful melodies and songs reminding us that we are all wonderfully unique.

Each tale comes alive through...

Lively musical activities featuring handheld percussion instruments
Captivating props that leap straight from the pages
Interactive storytelling that gets everyone moving, grooving, and imagining!

Where books and music come together in perfect harmony!

Perfect for Your Classroom

Designed for up to 35 students per session, this enchanting incursion brings the energy of a concert and the magic of a storybook right to your classroom or space. Together, your students and Mrs Music join in an unforgettable adventure where reading and music create beautiful memories!

Beyond Book Week

While specifically devised for the 2026 Book Week theme, this session strikes the right chord any time of year! With strong curriculum links to literacy, it demonstrates how engaging illustrations, compelling narratives, songs, and music can transform reading from a quiet solo activity into a spectacular group experience – building confidence, comprehension, and a lifelong love of literature.

What the teachers said...

"The Book Week incursion was a magical musical interactive experience. My Year 1 class were captivated for the entire lesson."

Year 1 Teacher

"Thank you so much for coming! The kids and staff had a great time. We would love to have you back again."

Year 3/4 Teacher

"We really loved it! The students were so engaged the entire time and it was a wonderful sensory experience to help foster a love of reading."

Year 2/3 Teacher

"The variety of mediums used - storytelling, music, movement, singing, instruments, costumes, props - kept their attention and piqued their interest and involvement."

Year 1 Teacher

"I would highly recommend booking this incursion, not only for Book Week but any time you can secure a time slot."

Year 1 Teacher

"I loved all of it and the children did too. They're still talking about it!"

Year 2 Teacher

"Thank you, Penelope! It was truly sensational!"
